Kabbalah is an ancient wisdom for change that many thousands of people around the world are learning. Once taught and understood only by a select few—Plato, Pythagoras, and Sir Isaac Newton are some of the progressive thinkers who used Kabbalah to uncover the fundamental nature of this world. Today, the wisdom of Kabbalah is available to anyone who desires to learn.

Each and every one of us has a purpose to fulfill in this lifetime, and a spark of the Divine inside. Most of us know we are capable of becoming more. If our lives are consumed with confusion, uncertainty and fear it’s because we are not moving toward achieving our potential.

Learning and utilizing the wisdom of Kabbalah awakens our consciousness and leads us to a greater path: one where we can effect lasting global change. This is the purpose of studying Kabbalah.

Kabbalah Publishing is the official publishing division of Kabbalah Centre International, Inc. We are distributors of the ancient wisdom of Kabbalah. Since the first recorded document hailing back to The Book of Formation written by Abraham 4,000 years ago, Kabbalah was a closely guarded mystery reserved for scholars.

That changed in 1922, when The Kabbalah Centre was established by Rav Ashlag. This master kabbalist was the first to modernize the wisdom and make it accessible. He then passed the mantle of leading The Kabbalah Centre and publishing the sources of enlightenment to his student, Rav Brandwein, who later passed it to Rav Berg. Rav Brandwein began publishing and self-distributing ancient texts under the imprint of The Kabbalah Learning Centre. These include the Zohar, The Writings of the Ari, as well as The Ten Luminous Emanations.

Rav Berg broke with the tradition of keeping this wisdom exclusive to only male scholars when he began to teach his wife, Karen. Together, in 1971, they opened The Kabbalah Centre to everyone. Today, Kabbalah Centre International, Inc. has grown into more than 20 Centres around the world and a multitude of study groups.

In 1977, our imprint changed to Research Centre of Kabbalah and we published An Entrance to the Zohar, An Entrance to the Tree of Life, Kabbalah for the Layman, To the Power of One, Secret Codes of the Universe, Time Zones, and Wheels of a Soul, which have each sold nearly 20,000 copies.
Historically the wisdom is relayed from master to disciple. Every generation has teachers who in turn study and transmit the knowledge to their students. The Kabbalah Centre and Kabbalah Publishing operate in much the same manner. For four decades, Rav Berg and Karen Berg have been sharing this wisdom through books and classes, and more recently with online content. Their sons, Yehuda and Michael, have also committed their lives to teaching Kabbalah, and the student base now spans the globe.

In 2002, Kabbalah Publishing officially launched with Michael Berg’s bestseller, The Secret. In 2003, Yehuda Berg continued the success with The 72 Names of God. This was one year after he and his brother garnered great acclaim at other publishing houses with their seminal works, The Way, (Michael Berg, Wiley) and The Power of Kabbalah, (Yehuda Berg, Jodere). Repackaged with the Kabbalah Publishing imprint, The Power of Kabbalah has since been licensed into 23 languages including Spanish, German, Dutch, Turkish, Italian, Bulgarian, Latvian, Korean, Russian and Portuguese. Honoring the path true to the lineage of The Kabbalah Centre, Michael authored the first Aramaic to English translation of the 23-volume set of the Zohar, including the commentary known as the Sulam, a project he began when he was only 18 years old and completed ten years later.

Previously, the Zohar and the knowledge contained therein were only available to the great scholars of history. In a radical departure from kabbalistic tradition, Karen Berg penned the first book on Kabbalah for women, God Wears Lipstick. With subjects ranging from relationships and sex, to prosperity and Bible studies, Kabbalah Publishing has an active backlist of 70 print titles, plus audio titles such as The Living Kabbalah System—the first ever at-home study system on Kabbalah following the master-teacher model—bringing the wisdom forward another step in accessibility. We release approximately 25 books a year, including new editions of classics and books in the Spanish language. In 2010, with robust sales in English and Spanish for The Power to Change Everything by Yehuda Berg, Kabbalah Publishing printed its first title in Portuguese, O Poder de Mudar Todo. Working with our licensing partners many of our titles are available in other languages, such as The Way, which has been translated into Spanish, German, Japanese, Arabic, Dutch, Turkish, Portuguese, Danish, Finnish, Swedish, Italian, Bulgarian, Romanian, Latvian, Greek, Farsi, Ukranian, Korean, and Czechoslovakian.
If we lived with an awareness of reincarnation and karma we would never think of life as random, perceive ourselves as victims, and we'd always be conscious of our actions. Life would make more sense and would be infinitely more fulfilling.

Reincarnation is the soul’s journey back to the Light via multiple physical incarnations. In each lifetime, the soul returns to the physical world to correct a different aspect of itself. In one incarnation a soul may need to learn about being rich; in another it may need to learn about being poor. Or it may need to experience strength and weakness, anger and compassion, beauty and unsightliness. It doesn’t matter if a person was Cleopatra or a foot soldier, the point is to be conscious of the things we failed at; the damage we came to restore so we can make the correction this time around.

Reading this book can help people understand some of the challenges and questions they have in this lifetime that may have come from another life. Part I addresses the process of reincarnation—how and why it happens. In Part II, readers learn about life challenges and why it’s important to embrace them as a necessary part of our soul’s work. In Part III, readers can detect past life lessons by using kabbalistic tools of angels, astrology, palm and face reading.

Awareness of our soul’s journey creates a context that helps us to guide our lives and appreciate what we were given. With this knowledge gleaned over many lifetimes our soul eventually manages to understand all the lessons and puts all of these fragments together. As it does so, the soul gathers sparks of Light back to itself. Eventually it returns to the source of all Light—the Creator—complete.

When we understand reincarnation our mistakes in this life don’t become devastating. We develop a level of spiritual maturity that helps us to perceive how everything is part of a bigger plan designed to help us to change and grow.

Death is not the end of the game, but just a chance to do over. We have nothing to fear. Life will be continued . . .
...To Be Continued... is a result of a lifelong exploration of metaphysics. Ever since Karen Berg was a child, she knew there was a higher power. As she searched for greater meaning and connection her studies encompassed reincarnation, healing energy, and astrology. By the age of 18, she was a medium. But she had a higher calling.

Over four decades ago, Karen met her husband Rav Berg. Together they set out to make Kabbalah comprehensible and relevant to all people in the world desiring an understanding of the spiritual dimension. Their mission has been to provide people with kabbalistic principles they can apply to improve their own lives, and by doing so uplift the world. Under their stewardship The Kabbalah Centre has grown from a single location into one of the world’s leading sources of spiritual wisdom with more than 40 locations around the globe.

One of Karen’s goals is to inspire spiritual dialogue as a bridge to create peace between diverse groups. She has done this by teaching kabbalistic principles that increase awareness of people’s similarities and celebrate our differences. Kids Creating Peace is one of The Kabbalah Centre initiatives.

Karen travels extensively to communicate her message of universal spirituality and peace. She spoke at Mastering the Ultimate Challenges in London and Poland with Donna Karan and at the Power of Peace conference in London with Dr. Jehan Sadat. She also led more than 1200 people of all faiths on a march of peace with the governor of Nablus in the square that once sparked acts of hatred and war.

Karen’s previous books are the bestselling God Wears Lipstick and Simple Light. She lives in Los Angeles, California.
Challenging traditional and scientific thoughts about reality, Rav Berg constructs a blueprint for those of us who are searching for total understanding of the world around us. According to kabbalistic principles, events on the Earthly plane manifest as a result of cosmic influence. There are forces that shape human condition and exert their control over our physical universe.

In this book, Rav Berg tells what these cosmic forces are and how to use them to make our lives better. He decodes narratives from The Book of Formation, the Zohar—the essential text of Kabbalah, and the Bible. Tales and parables within these books are symbolic reflections of the inner metaphysical realm through which one can perceive the divine mysteries of the universe.

Navigating the Universe offers a bridge between the Earthly realm and the Celestial realm. Rav Berg shows that the roots of most misfortune can be traced to cosmic danger zones. He offers a precise timetable of celestial conditions so we can approach positive energy intelligences of the universe and tap their power. Armed with this information, we can transcend the realm of chance, luck and indetermination.

Rav Berg keys us into specific dates to use when undertaking a new venture such as: opening a business, getting married, moving to a new home. Kabbalah can guide us through illusion to the all-embracing reality that the most fundamental natural laws date back to the Heavens and its origins.
Kabbalist Rav Berg has been director of The Kabbalah Centre since 1969, when he was given the leadership from Rabbi Yehuda Tzvi Brandwein. Along with his wife, Karen, Rav Berg opened the doors of Kabbalah to everyone interested in achieving life improvement through spiritual realization. Under his leadership, The Centre expanded the study Kabbalah from an exclusive scholarly pursuit, to an open international forum that teaches the wisdom as a way of creating a better life and a better world.

Rav Berg was born in Williamsburg, New York, into a family with a long rabbinical tradition. He studied at Beit Midrash Gavoha in Lakewood, New Jersey, and was ordained at the renowned rabbinical seminary, Torah VaDaat in Williamsburg. His principle contributions to the dissemination of Kabbalah include the, editing, translation, and publication of many of its cardinal works. He has authored many popular titles including Immortality, Wheels of the Soul, The Power of You, and The Energy of the Hebrew Letters.
The bestseller that popularized the contemporary Kabbalah movement, revised and more comprehensive

Our familiar reality is the physical 1 Percent Realm in which we live. Here we face challenges and obstacles 24/7. Yet there is another world called the 99 Percent Realm. According to Kabbalah everything we truly desire: love, joy, peace of mind, freedom, is available to us when we connect with this dimension beyond our five senses. When we reactively deal with our problems through anger, jealousy, fear, and insecurity we inadvertently disconnect ourselves from the source of lasting fulfillment. Imagine if we could use our difficulties as stepping stones to constantly access the 99 Percent. Utilizing kabbalistic tools we can rise above the limitations of this physical world and make a connection to this highest source of energy.

The 13 principles found in this book are culled from teachings that are more than 4000 years old. When applied, these principles can help us to remove chaos, personal struggle, and despair and reconnect us to a destiny of lasting happiness. This is the power of Kabbalah.

This newly edited and updated edition features additional content and spiritual exercises, and is more accessible for meeting today's current challenges. We discover how to align our actions with our higher purpose and become conscious of the unlimited possibilities in our own life. We become wise.
SATAN: AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY
As told to Yehuda Berg

The bestseller that popularized the contemporary Kabbalah movement, revised and more comprehensive

They say that the greatest trick “the Devil” ever pulled was convincing us that he doesn’t exist. In this book, Yehuda Berg uses the device of an “as told to” autobiography to explain the concept of The Adversary which plays a major role in Kabbalistic wisdom. We learn that Satan resides within everyone, manifesting as a recurrent little voice of uncertainty and negativity, and that is how havoc is wreaked throughout the world. By doing the spiritual work that Kabbalah teaches, we can banish doubt and evil influences from our lives, and eliminate chaos from the world. Although Yehuda takes creative license with the narrative, he presents a truthful representation of Kabbalah’s view on the force of evil in the physical universe.

Review By The Truth Revealed

Satan, An Autobiography seals the deal. This book has been written with the Adversary telling the story. It is informative, enlightening, funny, absolutely brilliant. I have endeavored to purchase as many copies as I possibly can and give as gifts freely to inform people that our ego, our reactionary button to everything that destroys, kills, creates pain and suffering continuously. Every decision and choice we have made knowingly or unknowingly has been the result of our selfish, self-serving ego. Every person who reads this book should leave inspired, hopeful, joyful, and ecstatic. You now know how the magic trick works. Once you know how the rabbit is pulled out of the hat, you have been given the secret to unending happiness for all eternity. No more excuses. No more lies. Now live and walk in truth. How we treat our fellow man is the measure of success we will experience on this planet. There is no heaven or hell to go to. You chose how you will live this life. Everything that happens to you is contributing to you being a better you. Overcome your ego at every opportunity and in exchange you get the keys to the vault of everything you seek after. This is a MUST read.

SECRETS OF THE ZOHAR
STORIES AND MEDITATIONS TO AWAKEN THE HEART

By Michael Berg

The Zohar is an acknowledged source of great spiritual wisdom that is as ancient as the Bible itself. Revealed to Moses as the “decoder” of the Bible, The Zohar was passed on as oral tradition until it was recorded as a sacred text that remained hidden for thousands of years.

The book you are holding in your hand is a doorway to the Zohar for everyone who wishes to enter. Michael Berg, noted Kabbalistic scholar, bestselling author and co-director of The Kabbalah Centre, has selected and organized 37 of the Zohar’s key stories in a new and unique way that is designed to make its amazing power accessible to all.

Each chapter begins with a clear explanation of what follows it: A particular portion of the Zohar that presents wisdom to address many of life’s challenges—fears, the need for inspiration, the search for a soul mate, the purpose of our spiritual work—all presented side by side in both Aramaic and its English translation.

At the end of each chapter is a simple but profound meditation for putting the portion’s message into action. The meditation is given in three ways: paraphrased into English, followed by the Aramaic to scan, and finally, translated phonetically from the Aramaic so you can read it aloud to intensify its power.

According to the greatest sages of Kabbalah, The Light of the Creator is embodied in the Zohar’s very letters and words. Scanning it in the original Aramaic is as important as reading its translation and understanding its relevance to your daily life.

Most people think of the Zohar as a collection of commentaries on the Bible. But, as Michael Berg makes clear in this book, the truth is that it is much more. It is an energy source and the most powerful tool you can use for your spiritual transformation. The Zohar is a bridge into the perfect world envisioned in the mind of God at the moment of Creation. The more you connect to it, the more you become one with that world, and the more you will experience joy and fulfillment.

SECRETS OF THE ZOHAR: Stories and Meditations to Awaken the Heart truly will awaken your heart and show you an inspired path to fulfillment.
Michael Berg is co-director of the Kabbalah Centre International. An accomplished Kabbalistic scholar and teacher, Michael was the first person to translate the entire 23-volume Zohar from ancient Aramaic into English, a monumental task which he completed when he was only 28. His other books include Becoming Like God, The Secret, Well of Life, and the national bestseller, The Way. Michael is also the co-director of kabbalah.com, the leading educational website on the wisdom of Kabbalah, and the founder of Raising Malawi, an orphan aid agency dedicated to caring for orphans and vulnerable children in Malawi, Africa. He lives in Los Angeles, California with his wife and three children, and lectures widely around the world.
ANGEL INTELLIGENCE
Yehuda Berg

Angels facilitate the circulation of energy throughout the non-physical universe. Invisible, intangible, and yet they influence us; angels serve as the infrastructure of the spiritual world. Some have existed forever — archangels, angels of the days of the week and of the zodiac, guardian angels, and the Angel of Death. But other angels are created by our actions — good or bad. When we are mindful of our actions, we are able to harness the power of angels, transform ourselves, and find greater fulfillment.
The Zohar tells us that one of God’s first creations was the twenty-two letters of the Hebrew alphabet. But these letters are far more than the simple symbols of communication that would later be used in a galley of type. In the metaphysical universe, each letter transfers awesome power from the Upper World to our physical dimension. Yet only one would be found to contain the attributes necessary to trigger the cosmic event that would propel the unseen world into the realm of material reality. As many know, the letter Bet was chosen. It is the first letter, of the first word, of the first story in the first book of the Five Books of Moses.

Kabbalists teach that the Hebrew alphabet, which, in Hebrew, is called “ivrit” comes from the root word “lavir” meaning “to transfer.” Letters are like wires, a technology for transferring energy from the Light of God into the physical world. The allegory of the letters as they pleaded their respective cases for the primary role in God’s creative process is the blueprint by which Creation was made possible. Rav Berg illustrates the bedrock of Kabbalah, and poetically reveals the spiritual meaning and history of each of the twenty-two letters: How and why it was created, and what energy it transmits to us.

NANO
Technology of Mind over Matter
Rav Berg

Long before "nano" entered the vernacular as an abbreviation for "nanotechnology," Rav Berg was speaking and writing in spiritual terms about this scientific concept, which is basically "less is more" rather than "the bigger, the better." That less physicality can produce more power is a relatively recent scientific discovery, but it is something that kabbalists have known throughout the ages. Simply put, it is the triumph of mind over matter. Space will continue to be reduced until there is nothing more between us and the world around us. This lends support for the notion that "we are all one," and by extension, to the credo "Love your neighbor as yourself."

THE POWER TO CHANGE EVERYTHING
Yehuda Berg

A thought-provoking call to action on our current global crisis. Stating that our collective abdication of personal responsibility - in every facet of our lives including the economy, the environment, politics, healthcare, and religion - has contributed to the challenges we face, Yehuda asserts that assuming accountability for our actions (or lack thereof) and their consequences is the key to achieving change for the better. He urges us to access the power within, using the principles of Kabbalah, in order to create the consciousness shift required for lasting positive transformation.

THE PRAYER OF THE KABBALIST

The 42-Letter Name of God

Yehuda Berg

Kabbalists believe that one of the most powerful prayers is the Ana Beko'ach or 42-Letter Name of God. This name is a vehicle we can use to tap into the energy of Creation—the source of joy and fulfillment—and help make a connection to life-improving energies. It is a meditation anyone can use to "start over," and get rid of excess "baggage." The actual prayer consists of seven sentences with six letters each; hence the title: The 42-letter Name.

THE SPIRITUAL RULES OF ENGAGEMENT
How Kabbalah Can Help Your Soul Mate Find You
Yehuda Berg

More than a decade after the runaway bestseller The Rules advised women on how to land “Mr. Right,” it’s time for a new set of rules with a more spiritual approach. This book describes relationships from a kabbalistic perspective and explains what makes them work (or not work); reveals that it is the woman who holds the power to determine the outcome; and identifies the differences that cause men and women to think and act differently. Although not a compilation of dating tips, its rules do work. They have to work: They are the laws of the universe. Readers learn the true meaning of the term “soul mate,” and why it’s better for a man to pursue a woman, not the other way around. These are more than just rules of engagement; they’re rules for creating a happier, more fulfilling life.
